INVOLVEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

COMMUNITY OUTREACH PROGRAM

The Outreach Program is a way to get involved with community service! Just sign up, show up, and you'll be on your way to a meaningful service experience! Projects are offered at a variety of nonprofit agencies and there are projects to choose from almost every day of the week. To get involved: Step 1: Check out the schedule here; Step 2: Choose a project that matches your interests/availability, and sign up in the project binders in the lobby at the Center for Leadership & Social Change; Step 3: Show up at the Center at the designated project arrival time. You'll meet your Project Facilitators and get checked in; Step 4: Enjoy the Outreach project experience, which includes introductions, a pre-service explanation, hands-on service off campus, and a facilitated reflection discussion afterward; Step 5: Record your service using the ServScript Program by the deadline (August 7th for the summer term); Step 6: REPEAT steps 2 through 5 all semester long! Transportation is provided. For more information, contact Heather Stitely at hstitely@admin.fsu.edu.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH FACILITATOR

Apply to be a Fall 2015 Community Outreach Facilitator! Have you enjoyed volunteering with Community Outreach trips and want to take your service to the next level, leading other students in service to the agencies you care about? Apply to be a Center for Leadership & Social Change Community Outreach Facilitator. Applications are currently being accepted. You must have been a volunteer with this program and be eligible to drive the Center vans to qualify. Visit thecenter.fsu.edu/Programs/Community-Outreach-Program for more information and an application. Contact Heather Stitely at hstitely@fsu.edu for questions.

FSU SUMMER PROGRAMMING

Looking for something to do? Check out Summer Programming! There is plenty to do during the summer at Florida State University! Several campus departments come together during the summer to provide opportunities to stay engaged and involved during the summer months. If you are looking for things to do on campus, check out all the places to go here.

A flyer for the Nonprofit Internship Program. At the top, there is a logo consisting of two overlapping circles with the text "NONPROFIT INTERNSHIP PROGRAM" inside. Below the logo is a text box with the following text: "Do you want to make a lasting contribution to a local nonprofit while earning 6 or 12 elective academic credits? Are you looking for work experience related to your major? Are you interested in enhancing your professional skills? Then you should consider applying to participate in the Nonprofit Internship Program. Students in this program intern at a wide variety of local nonprofit, public service, human service, education, and government agencies. Issue areas include: youth development, senior services, legal services, education, counseling, domestic abuse, poverty, homelessness, environment, government, disaster service and more." Below this text box, it says "Applications for Fall are due by 5pm on Friday, July 31. Questions? Contact Heather Stitely at hstitely@fsu.edu". At the bottom, there is a small box with the text "For more information or to access an application, visit us at: <http://thecenter.fsu.edu/NPI>". In the bottom right corner, there is a logo for the "CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP & SOCIAL CHANGE".

2015 FALL INVOLVEMENT FAIR

The 2015 Fall Involvement Fair will be held on Tuesday, August 25 from 7:00pm to 9:00pm at the Oglesby Union. This is a great opportunity for recognized student organizations and departments to table and promote their organization at the beginning of the Fall Semester. Complete the form HERE to reserve your spot today! The last day to register for a table at the Involvement Fair will be Friday, August 14 at 5:00pm. Confirmations and follow-up information will begin to go out on July 1.

SECOND HARVEST FOOD ON THE MOVE PROGRAM

Second Harvest needs volunteers for their "Food on the Move" bus! The Food on the Move bus is part of their Summer Food Program.
